DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgica

INSTITUTE.

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so much to secure the reputation of this Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so great importance to the sick as to know where to find a physician whose skill and humanity give assurance of proper and delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both sexes who are suffering or in trouble to the invariable success that has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

OHIO—HOW THE DEMOCRATS RATIFIED AT PIQUA

PIQUA, Ohio, July 14—The Democrats are holding a ratification meeting here to-night. There are not more than two hundred persons present—most of them Republicans. I never saw a crowd so hard up for enthusiasm. At 7 30 the band appeared in front of the City Hotel and tried to rally the few Democrats there in this section of the country by discoursing sweet music but the poor things have not revived enough to be out since they were forced to swallow the dose given them at New York. The first speaker was Dr Field, member of the State Assembly. He began by reading the platform adopted by the New York Convention pausing after each resolution for cheers, but nary cheer was heard. However after he had concluded some one in the crowd wanted to know if it was time to hallo which caused great laughter, but this was the extent of the applause. The Doctor seemed very much embarrassed and soon gave way as he said to one better versed in political affairs than himself. The second speaker led off by reading the letters of acceptance by Seymour and Blair and got hisses for his pains, which considerably cooled his ardor and his speech, too was of short duration when he yielded the stand to the third person who tried to get up a little enthusiasm by bitterly denouncing the Republican party and the Rump Congress. He was soon without hearers as the crowd fast disappeared. Count on Ohio for 20,000 for Grant and Colfax

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES—WHAT THE REBELS HOPE FROM THEM

The Augusta (Ga) Chronicle a bitter anti reconstruction journal, quotes Seymour's speech delivered on his election as permanent President of the New York Convention and Blair's infamous letter. It then says

"The sentiments expressed by both candidates are consonant with the views and wishes of the Southern people, who only seek for that measure of justice which the Constitution and laws guarantee to every State and citizen. General Blair has only one way in which these outrages on the Constitution can be checked and remedied and Government restored. It is this. The President shall declare the Reconstruction acts null and void compel the army to undo its usurpations at the South, disperse the carpet bag State governments allow the white people to reorganize their own governments and select Senators and Representatives

This one sentiment contains a declaration of principles broad enough and comprehensive enough for the people of the South. It reflects the sentiments of the Democratic party and of the great national conservative heart of the whole people in this country, who are determined to stop the mad carnival of Radicalism and restore the country and the Government to their former peace prosperity and greatness. This consummation which we of the South so ardently and prayerfully seek for can and will be brought about under the administration of Seymour and Blair—the people's choice"

THE THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT—NEWSPAPER GOSSIP

[From the Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch]

WASHINGTON Saturday July 11

A movement was commenced here to-day with the object of forming a third party to run Chase for President and General Ewing of Kansas for Vice President. This movement has been started by Democrats who are dissatisfied with the nomination of Seymour and Blair and Conservatives of the Chase persuasion, who are determined to run Chase at all hazards. It is understood that he is willing to be a candidate under these auspices and it is confidently asserted to-night that the new party will receive the support of President Johnson who is intensely disgusted with the action of the New York Convention. A consultation was held at the White House this morning, at which Secretaries Seward and Welles and Senator Doolittle were present and it is reported that the subject was fully discussed and the result was that rumors were soon after circulated on the street that initiatory steps had been taken to set the ball in motion

[From the Providence Journal

WASHINGTON Sunday July 12

There is an undercurrent movement among politicians here, which it is difficult to reach but which disturbs the surface just enough to indicate its course. That movement is still in embryo but I think its purpose has been devised near enough to warrant the publication of the fact. Ever since the Democratic nomination the disappointed Democrats throughout the country incensed by the action of the New York Convention in throwing overboard such men as Hendricks Chase Hancock and others for Seymour and Blair have been canvassing the chances of placing a third candidate in the field and have been trying for two or three days to induce certain disappointed Republicans to join them with Chase as leader and candidate. It is argued that a third candidate could take a majority of the Democratic votes in the country and enough of the Republicans who have been life long friends to the Chief Justice to carry the electoral vote. All the indications point to this as the course likely to be pursued. It is very certain from the action of the leaders here that there is a wide-spread dissatisfaction among the Democrats and if Chase will consent to run he will have an opportunity. If he will not then Grant and Colfax will have most of the votes among the soreheaded Democrats and the balance will take no part in the election on either side

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE MISSOURI REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

ST LOUIS, July 16—The following resolutions were adopted by the Republican State Convention held to-day at Jefferson City

The first approves the platform of the National Republican Convention and pledges an earnest and hearty support to Grant and Colfax

The second thanks the party called the Democratic for unmasking to the country its real design by the nomination of a man whose political creed finds its due interpretation in a declaration which publicly threatens a new revolution and proposes to trample in the dust laws duly enacted to disperse State Governments constitutionally established and to compel the Senate to submit to such an interpretation of the constitution as a dictator may give. We appeal to all good citizens of either party who desire peace and order to join in putting down this new cause of rebellion and crushing the madmen who threaten to bring us another cruel war "

The third particularly endorses the third fourth fifth and sixth articles of the national platform, and reaffirms that the payment of the national debt is a part of the national honor and good faith and justice and are as obligatory upon governments as upon men, and that the spirit of their contract is more of its life even than its letter, and that we spurn and utterly condemn the evasion of our national obligations as proposed by the Democratic Convention, as ruinous to the credit and material interests of the nation

It declares that disfranchisement [illegible] upon difference of color only, is neither just nor republican, unequivocally favors the [illegible] of the constitutional amendment now pending, that impartial suffrage may be established in Missouri and that an unjust discrimination, born of slavery the cause of the rebellion, may be forever removed from the laws of the State.

The fifth repeats the resolution of the Soldiers Convention yesterday in regard to the disfranchisement of rebels, and restoration of political privileges to them at the earliest moment consistent with State and national safety

The sixth resolves that the payment of seventeen millions of State debt, left by former Democratic administrations, the appreciation of the bonds of the State, from thirty three cents in 1863, when they bore thirty six per cent overdue interest to 91 cents, without overdue interest, in 1868 the enlargement of the school fund, restoration of the credit of the State accomplished, not only without increase but with a large reduction of taxation, give proof of the ability of the Radical party to so manage the finances of the State as to secure its prosperity and guard its honor, and at the same time relieve the tax payers of all unnecessary burden

The seventh sternly insists upon the most economical administration of the State government, and earnestly recommends the greatest care and circumspection on the part of friends in their nominations for public office of men of established character and honesty

The convention nominated Colonel McClurg, the present Representative in Congress from the Fifth District for Governor, on the first ballot.

E O Stannard, a prominent miller and flour merchant of St. Louis, was unanimously nominated for Lieutenant Governor on the second ballot. John Rodman the present incumbent, was nominated by acclamation for Secretary of State, G. Dallmeyer, Treasurer, General Dan Draper, Auditor

POSITION OF THE CONSERVATIVE MEN

[From the New Bedford Mercury]

At a dinner party in Boston, lately, several Conservative gentlemen announced their intention to vote for Mr Chase, whose nomination was momentarily expected. On learning that Seymour was nominated all agreed that nothing was left for them to do but to vote for General Grant. We hear that one prominent Democrat in this section has expressed the same determination

FROM SEYMOUR'S HOME

The Utica Herald, published at the home of Horatio Seymour thus hails his nomination:

He has secured by indirection and subtlety a nomination which he pretended that he would not take. He has demonstrated his disingenuous sinister character. He has explained the motive of the left handed blows which he dealt in his recent speech at other candidates, He has stripped from himself the veil under which he prepared his toils. He is the same man that was beaten in this State in 1864 and he can and must be beaten in 1868. The canvass is to be sharp bitter and decisive in this State. Of the election of General Grant there cannot well be a doubt. But New York must lead the Republican hosts. All that was needed to arouse determination and kindle enthusiasm is provided. Republicans of New York! Your duty and your honor call you to the front!

For this Horatio Seymour is the same who declared in 1861 that successful coercion would be as revolutionary as secession, that is to say that the triumph of the Union arms would be as much to be deprecated as the success of the rebellion. It is the same Seymour who in October of the same year, proclaimed that if the Union could not be preserved without the destruction of slavery the Southern people must at all hazards be protected in that institution. It is the same Seymour who in 1863, sneered at the Union armies, and tauntingly asked for the promised victories the same Seymour whose teachings led to resistance to the draft and fanned the flames of the riots in which his friends revelled. It is the same Seymour who assailed Lincoln in his life time and since his death, who has never yet recognized the emancipation of the slaves who done more than any other single individual to blacken the fair fame and break down the credit of the Republic. During the war he played the part of Cassandra always magnifying Southern valor always decrying the fortune of national always predicting ruin and thus always contributing to that result. Had the rebellion triumphed over the government, Horatio Seymour would have been fitly chosen to be the presiding genius of the oligarchy reared on the remnants of the republic

The suavity and affability and apparent self sacrifice which enabled him to hoodwink the convention will be freely used as capital to induce Republicans in this county and this State to sustain him. They will think more than twice before yielding to the temptation. Mr Seymour never yet extended a political courtesy to a political opponent. No man is more bitter than he in assaults on antagonists. His speeches always overflow with bile, and malevolence, and utterly unsupported charges against the party which suppressed the rebellion abolished slavery and has reconstructed the Union. They were the chief element relied upon during the war to distract the sentiment of the North. No amount of aristocratic condescension no humble appeal for the votes of neighbor, can induce thinking men to forget the record made and the mischief wrought by Horatio Seymour

Men of New York! this is a contest for principle a contest for the issues on which the republic is based. The loyal ranks are arrayed, and they are full and steady. Remember Vicksburg and Gettysburg! Remember Richmond and Five Forks! Remember Appomattox and the final victory! Preserve by the ballot that which has been so dearly bought by blood!

The Late Mormon Importation.

[From the N Y Express 14th]

The steamer Minnesota which arrived here yesterday as already stated brought 1,100 passengers among whom were 531 Mormons. The latter landed to-day at 12½ o clock, and presented a very motley group of young and old male and female. They are chiefly from the manufacturing districts of England and Wales. One is an Italian with a wife and eight children six of whom are females and the oldest is not sixteen years of age.

It would scarcely be fair to criticise the appearance of the men after coming from on board a steam ship but as a general thing they did not add much bone and sinew to the faithful in Utah. A great many were very old men and women but quite a number of pretty girls—several of whom had no male protectors—were among them

Our reporter got into conversation with a very intelligent man from Manchester who had only his wife and one daughter had been married some time ago in England, but as work began to slack it was agreed between her husband and herself that one of them should go to Utah. The husband was unwilling to go first because he was afraid to leave his wife unprovided for behind him. She accordingly came out here, and went to work in different families so that she saved quite a sum of money and sent it home, the husband added his savings and followed, and in less than two years had so well succeeded as to have purchased a house worth £70 sterling ($350 in gold) and sixteen acres of land, and is now in a condition to care for the remainder of the family until they procure work, which will not be long

Our reporter remarked that probably he would have a second wife before they got there

"I have no fear of that," replied the Manchester man. "True, we believe a plurality of wives to be holy and useful, but I [illegible] two daughters there, and [illegible] husbands do not care to add to the family in [illegible] way. Men who are in the world, who are without the spirit of God, look upon polygamy with a kind of horror, but the true Church—which I contend the Mormon is—looks upon it not only as true religion, but as a protection to the weak sex which they [illegible] in need of as they are certainly the [illegible] ones. But I say that I should not feel [illegible] in the slightest degree if this girl, this daughter were to marry her sister's husband, or any other man who has a wife, when we get to Utah."

The Captain of the [illegible] the men as quiet, kind, and of [illegible] He said he had no trouble at all with [illegible] men or women on the voyage, and as a general thing their conduct was very good.

The proportion of [illegible] er than that of unmarried [illegible] also a number of women with child [illegible] husbands are still in England. They [illegible] to do as well as they can until their husbands are able to join them, and they intend to [illegible] there to do so as soon as they [illegible] men are mostly able bodied and will [illegible] work. All the able-bodied [illegible] to work on the Pacific R[illegible] Brigham Young's contract.

After [illegible] they will be returned to the [illegible] taken to where they can meet the [illegible] Central line of railroad, by which they have all contracted to Salt Lake City

The ship John Bright is [illegible] with [illegible] hundred more Mormons on board, and will probably be up this evening. The [illegible] who have already landed appear very [illegible] safe arrival. 3,000 to 5,000 [illegible] this season. The sailing v[illegible] and Constitution have been out [illegible] may soon be expected, and the [illegible] Colorado will start from Liverpool to-morrow with a large number on board.

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President:

For Vice President:

Of Indiana.

For Presidential Electors:

O JACOBS of Jackson
WILSON BOWLBY of Washington
A B M ACHAM of Umatilla

National Lincoln Monument

It is proposed to erect to the memory of the martyr President Lincoln a national monument and the matter is in the hands of the National Lincoln Monument Association of Washington City Already a considerable sum of money has been raised but a much greater is needed The Association has issued two numbers of the Monument a small periodical designed to be the medium of appeals for donations acknowledgement of receipts and the dissemination of information concerning the progress of the grateful work it has in hand We have received the second issue of the Monument from which we copy the following

> The Monument which the National Lincoln Monument Association proposes to erect is to be a monument of the times and events which gave lustre and a world-wide renown to the administration of the martyred Lincoln It is to be a bronze and granite picture of the great war for the preservation of the Union, and to carry down to all time the memory of the great men who bore a conspicuous part in the field, in the Cabinet, in the National Councils, and in unofficial stations It is to embody within itself the leading men and events of the great war for the preservation of the Union, and the great reforms in the civil affairs of the nation rendered possible and necessary by the suppression of the rebellion
> 'The monument which has recently been erected here, is a simple marble statue of Mr Lincoln and is creditable to the people of this District through whose liberality it was constructed
> The National Monument, for the creation of which this Association has been incorporated by Congress is for the whole nation, and every state and section will be represented in the person of some of its prominent and patriotic citizens, or by the commemoration of some event of national importance "

Congress recently passed a bill appropriating to the uses of the Association sufficient of the captured cannon in the late war to make all the statues and figures designed to be put in the monument but this appropriation is upon the condition that the Association shall procure at least $100,000 as a fund to secure the erection of the monument In order to procure that amount of money the Association has appointed agents and solicitors throughout the United States and collections are going on as rapidly as the managers can push them Very liberal prizes are offered to subscribers, such as a large imperial photograph of Lincoln to each $10 subscriber, a finely engraved receipt, with the autograph signature of General Spinner, and on which is a splendid steel engraved likeness of Lincoln, to each $1 subscriber, etc Up to July, California led all the States in the amount of donations, in proportion to population In like manner, be it said to her credit, through all the dark days of the rebellion, she led all the States in the amount of her donations for the relief of the nation's patriotic defenders

It is due to the patriotic character of the American people that the completion of the monument to their deliverer should not lag Let the money for this work of gratitude go up from every state, city, village and neighborhood in the United States for the memory of Lincoln belongs to every patriot Oregon should have a share in the work and should undertake it at once The officers of the Association, to whom money may be [illegible] Harlan, President; Hon John F Driggs, Vice President Hon J M Edmunds, Secretary; Hon F E Spinner Treasurer Post office address of all the officers, Washington, D C

CALIFORNIA FOR GRANT AND COLFAX —The Sacramento Union estimates that the vote of California, next November exclusive of the [illegible] who will be voters, will approximate 45,000 for the Democracy and 57,000 for Grant and Colfax The immigrant voters who arrived previous to the 10th of April, last—none who arrived later than date can vote are estimated to number 10,000 The Union allows it to be possible that 7,000 of these may vote for Seymour Granting that much, it claims a Republican majority in the State of not less than 8,000 Closing a long article on this matter, it says 'We have not much hesitation in answer to the question How is California going? It is going for Grant and Colfax by not less than eight to ten thousand majority '

CONSISTENCY —The Democrats raise a tremendous howl about the expense of the standing army But when the bill to reduce the army passed the Senate the vote was announced a "strict party vote '—the Democrats all voting in the negative They raise a great hue and cry about the Freedmen s Bureau and demand its abolition Yet when the bill to discontinue the Bureau on and after January 1st 1869 was under consideration, the Democrats in Congress all voted against it Not long since they were finding fault because the Southern States had no representatives in Congress But whenever one of those States have sent Senators and Representatives the Democrats have uniformly voted to keep them out Of such stuff is the consistency of Democracy

The New York World announces that the publication of Reed s Life of Buchanan will be properly postponed till the accession of Constitutional Democracy to power While waiting that event the author will have ample time to prepare about 1 900 lengthy appendices containing full notes of President Grant's administration and of several successive downfalls of the rebel Democracy The author having concluded to thus postpone the work, should not fail to make provision in his will binding his heirs and assigns forever to publish his ancient history at the earliest opportunity

The Hartford Post says "that Gen F P Blair's hotel bill in that city last year was sent to the Democratic State Committee as follows Two day's board $10 lemons and whisky, $65, Total, $75 The bill for board seems to us to have been outrageously exorbitant—it can t be supposed that the man ate anything along with sixty five dollars worth of whisky, and $10 is pretty steep for two nights lodging Blair must have been then in training for a Democratic nomination and as he has got it, we suppose he does not care much for the $10 item in the bill

A statistician says that lightning strikes more women every year than men Nothing strange about that—it s because they are more attractive

In marrying Frank Blair, the Democracy marries the whole family They will find it very expensive

STATE ITEMS

News from Crescent city is to the effect that the Indian difficulties on the lower Klamath have not been yet settled Two additional companies have been sent for

A blacksmith shop belonging to a Mr German in Sam's Valley Jackson county was burned on Sunday, July 26th D C Livingston and Cyrus Jackson were arrested on suspicion of being the incendiaries and Livingston was held to answer

An order says the Sentinel from the Head quarters of this Military Department has been received at Fort Klamath regarding the Modoc Indians The tribe are to be treated as hostile Indians until they see fit to come in and stay on the reservation So we are informed by Mr Alex Miller who arrived from the post on Tuesday

The Roseburg Ensign learns that Mr Sutherlin drove a team into a nest of yellow jackets while cutting grain in a harvest field near Oakland one day last week the insects stung the horses until they became unmanageable and commenced running throwing Mr Sutherlin under the reaper breaking and crushing one leg horribly besides other injuries

The Jacksonville Sentinel says, Mr Lovens, of Cow Creek, has been lucky enough to recover the $9 000 stolen from his safe a few weeks ago by Chinese Tom except about $1 100 which was probably paid to a confederate The offer of $1 000 reward had put a number of men on the track of the robber and on Sunday last he was captured after being shot and badly wounded by F A Davis on Rogue River near the mouth of Galice Creek Another Chinaman who was camped with him was fired on several times but escaped to the brush Tom stoutly refused to tell where he had buried the money but after suffering severely for several days he sent for Mr Lovens and told him the money was cached on Grave Creek He was carried over from the river to the creek but it was found that he was lying probably to gain time for the confederate who escaped On being told that his partner had been killed he then said the money was buried on Rogue River where Davis had captured him It was found there but minus the amount mentioned Tom was shot through the body and it is not very likely that he will recover to trouble the courts, and Mr Lovens may consider himself fortunate in recovering any portion of his money The other can scarcely escape He has only one ear, is badly pox marked and as he has the balance of $1 100, his capture would be worth something

IDAHO

POLITICAL

The Boise Statesman of July 30 says

We extract the following political news from a private letter from Idaho county " Butler s nomination meets the hearty approval of all our people and we will give him a good majority The chances are fair to elect the whole ticket Daniel More is our nominee for council, and A McDonald and R H Johns for assembly That they will be elected by a large majority there is no doubt as the whole ticket is a good one

The Lewiston Journal of the 25th ult, speaking of the visit to Northern Idaho, of Mr T J Butler the Republican candidate for Congress, says

" The Idaho World says that 'Mr Butler is the strong st candidate that the Radicals could put in the field,' and we would add, that if he be elected he will be more of a people's agent representative and less of a politician than either of the other candidates It is impossible for North Idaho to get a Delegate directly engaged in her interests, but, from the three who are now in the field for this position, let us choose the one who will give North Idaho some little of his time and attention in general legislation and with the heads of the several departments at Washington '

HOT WEATHER

The Journal says " Intense hot weather has prevailed here for the last two weeks, and by exchanges, we notice the same occurred in the Eastern States about the 12th and 15th inst However, we have heard of only one case of sun stroke, and that only partial, Crops are suffering

EASTERN OREGON

DISCOVERY OF A QUARTZ MINE

The same paper says Mr F Jones, of Walla Walla, has left with us several specimens of gold bearing quartz taken from a ledge which he discovered on Burnt river a short time since. The specimens are quite rich and would seem to indicate an important discovery "

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE BY EX GOVERNOR ORR Ex Governor Orr, of South Carolina, has published an address to the people of the State reviewing his administration and presenting the reasons which influenced his public conduct and advising a future policy He says that it would have been wise for the white people to accept the reconstruction acts and that if non constitutional it is the fault of the intelligent white men who took no part in the Convention elections He again avows himself in favor of qualified colored suffrage He says it is idle to expect any relief from universal suffrage, from the Democratic party If the Southern governments in 1871 are declared void the States will be left in a condition of anarchy If the Supreme Court declares them unconstitutional he asks what constitutions will be in force and what officers reinstated He says we shall depend on ourselves only and speaks of the harmony that existed between himself and the district commanders In conclusion he says that the principles and purposes avowed by his successor Governor Scott with reference to the interests of the State are wise and patriotic and he invites the people to give his administration a full and fair trial before its condemnation

The Chicago Post says Old Blair is rampant He wants a President to be elected who will put his foot upon the reconstruction of the South If such is not elect son he will find that he has put his foot in it instead of on it '

Everybody wonders seeing Seward so hungry from territory why he don't take a Sandwich The big earthquake which has lately convulsed the principal island is just the tonic for his greedy annexing stomach

Seth Green the down east shad hatcher, says Every acre of water is worth two of land, and it can be tilled at one thousandth part of the expense, '

The Poisons of the Day —The late temperance investigations in Massachusetts have thrown a flood of light on the horrible abuses of the liquor trade and have at the same time demonstrated the absolute necessity for unadulterated diffusive stimulants for official purposes, Clergymen of the highest standing men of the highest rank in science and philanthropists, who are above the reach of prejudice have testified not only to the pernicious effects of the adulterated liquors of commerce but also to the efficacy of uncontaminated alcoholic tonics as remedial and restorative agents

First on the list of this class of preparations best known and most extensively used of all the stomachics of the day stands HOSTETTER S STOMACH BITTERS This specific is the only representative of that absolutely pure article which eminent divines chemists physicians and social economists in New England have just declared not to be a proper subject for prohibitory legislation The faculty proclaims by the mouths of its professors that a stimulant of this character is a medical necessity HOSTETTER S BITTERS satisfies all the requirements of science Its alcoholic principle is free from the irritating constituents which analysis detects in even the best imported liquors and the vegetable extracts with which it is medicated are among the best antidotes and restoratives that botanical science in its world wide research, has yet discovered It is an undoubtable fact that some constitutions and habits of body demand stimulation and for all such a stimulant which combines anti billious and slightly aperient properties with its tonic virtues is manifestly desirable

MORE ABOUT THE STAGE ROBBERY By Mr James A Waters, who arrived here last evening from the Dalles we learn the following particulars in regard to the express and mail robbery near [illegible] Station on the Blue Mountains, last Sunday morning About 5 o'clock A M the stage reached a point some four miles this side of Pelican Station and had just arrived at the top of a hill when four men two masked, and two with blacked faces simultaneously sprang from behind the trees at the roadside and ordered the stage driver to halt and the passengers to lay down their arms Mr Sheppard Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger made some demonstrations of resistance and delayed to lay down his gun, when the driver seized the gun and wresting it from Mr Sheppard's hands, threw it on the ground Mr Waters made a move for his arms and one of the robbers covered him with a shot gun and told him to stand or he would blow the top of his head off The captain of the band then ordered the passengers and driver to advance thirty feet in front of, and stand with their backs to the stage They marched out and two of the ruffians stood guard over them while the other two rifled the mail and express box contained in the stage They then came up and ordered Major Mears and Mr Waters to hold up their hands which they reluctantly did while the robbers searched their persons, and took all of the Major's private funds and a portion of Mr W's pocket change They did not make personal search, either of the driver Mr Sheppard or the other passenger After going through Maj M. and Mr W., two returned to the stage judging from the noise (he was not allowed to look round) made by them Mr Waters thinks they unhitched and mounted the two lead horses and rode off to the left of the road through the woods One of the remaining two then told the driver to bring the stage up which was done and the three passengers and Mr Sheppard got into the stage the driver was ordered to go ahead and that was the last heard or seen of the robbers While plundering the stage the villains found a trunk belonging to a lady who had come to Meacham's station the previous day The trunk contained several articles and jewelry It had been broken open and the contents examined but nothing was taken Also in searching the person of Mr Waters, they felt his watch chain and watch, but made no signs of taking it The whole amount secured by them was about $[illegible],000, mostly from Wells, Fargo & Co's treasure box Mr Waters says there was no alternative left but for them to submit, as the robbers "had the drop on them" and the least movement by them in the direction of defence, would have doubtless cost them their lives

COLUMBIA RIVER FISHERIES —Not among those branches of trade carried on to the least extent in Oregon is that of salmon fishing Usually the supply of fish, easily obtainable is unlimited and in the past the demand has been quite extensive and the prices up to a living figure However during the present fishing season those engaged in the business assure us that they have all suffered to greater or less extent from the scarcity of fish and the fact that they are of a quality inferior to the catch of former years, and from the depreciation in prices The salmon caught with nets, three men being necessary to work one net The average length of the nets is from [illegible] and sixty to two hundred fathoms, and it is estimated to catch a barrel of fish to each fathom The [illegible] are paid from 40 to 60 dollars per month The [illegible] caught at the Columbia river during the spring season of 1868 has been quite small in comparison with that of former years, and in fact several parties abandoned their nets before the season closed on account of [illegible], and the scarcity and inferior quality of the fish. The total number of barrels of salmon taken this year in the [illegible] above alluded to, is about 4 000 Of these, [illegible] barrels were taken in Columbia county [illegible] and at a point in Washington Territory [illegible] The remaining 200 barrels are from [illegible] Messrs Hume Hapgood & Co have put up [illegible] cans the cans containing one and two lbs. each. Mr Hume has put up 150 000 cans The [illegible] of the fisheries this year is no [illegible] that the same will happen again, and we predict a great trade in this article when the market for it shall [illegible] more firmly established and the facilities for [illegible] and exporting shall become more [illegible]

[illegible] —Messrs Northrop Watkins and others who lately went on a hunting excursion to the Cascade [illegible] Monday evening having enjoyed an [illegible] fine time It was the intention of the party [illegible] to the top of Mt Hood, and one of them [illegible] a point fifteen feet of the top [illegible] that he concluded to [illegible] on the Devil's Backbone, [illegible] engaged in hunting deer bear, elk, [illegible] three [illegible] as having fallen victims to [illegible]

A Four O'Clock [illegible]

Ah, happy day refuse to go
Hang in the heavens forever so
Forever in mid afternoon
Ah happy day of happy June
Pour out thy sunshine on the hill
[illegible] with perfume fill,
And breathe across the singing sea
Land scented breezes that shall be
Sweet as the gardens that they pass
Where children tumble in the grass

Ah happy day, refuse to go
Hang in the heavens forever so
And long not for thy blushing rest
In the [illegible] of the West
But let gray evening get her back
With all the stars upon her track
Forget the dark forget the dew
The mystery of the midnight blue,
And only spread thy wide warm wings
While summer her enchantment flings!

Ah happy day refuse to go!
Hang in the heavens forever so
Forever let thy tender mist
Lie dissolving amethyst
Deep in the distant dales and shed
Thy mellow glory overhead!
Yet wilt thou wander—call the thrush,
And have the wilds and waters hush
To hear his passion broken tune,
Ah, happy day of happy June

The Electoral College Bill—Scene in the House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, July 11th —The Electoral College bill amendments were read

The amendments reported were read as follows To strike out the words, "and which States are not now represented in Congress," and insert the following "Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to any State which was represented in Congress on the 4th of March 1867," so that the joint resolution will read

Resolved, That none of the States whose inhabitants were lately in rebellion shall be entitled to representation in the Electoral College for the choice of President and Vice President of the United States, nor shall any electoral vote be received or counted from any of such States, unless the people of such States, pursuant to the Acts of Congress in that behalf, shall have, since the 4th day of March 1867, adopted a Constitution of State Government, under which a State Government shall have been organized and shall be in operation, nor unless such election of Electors shall have been held under the authority of such Constitution and Government, and such State shall have also become entitled to representation in Congress pursuant to the acts of Congress in that behalf, provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to apply to any State that was represented in Congress on the 4th of March, 1867.

Mr Boutwell remarked that he did not deem it necessary to discuss the [illegible], as the object of it was well known to all the members.

Mr Eldridge (Dem.) of Wisconsin, asked Mr Boutwell to state under what part of the Constitution he found his authority for the measure.

Mr Boutwell said he would not go at length into all the circumstances by which the Southern States, through the influence of the gentleman's political friends, had lost their representation in Congress, but the purpose of the majority in Congress and the purpose of the country unmistakably was to hold those States in the grasp of the loyal people of the country until they were reconstructed under loyal influences, with loyal majorities, loyal State Governments, loyal Representatives and Senators in Congress. When all these things took place, then, and not before, those States should participate in the Presidential election.

Mr. Eldridge said that the gentleman had not answered or intended to answer his question as to the statement that the Democratic party was responsible for the loss of representation by the Southern States. The gentleman from Massachusetts need not tell the House any such thing, for he knew and God knew that that was not so. [Laughter] The war against the rebellion was a success, and the Southern States were saved to the Union.

Mr. Boutwell said that under the lead of loyal men of the South eight of the Southern States had been substantially restored to the Union against the protest of the forty five Democratic members. Under the lead of that faction, and on the platform laid down by its candidate for the Vice Presidency, the Democracy proposed again to involve the country in the war. He [illegible] the aspirant of the Vice Presidency as one who through the last four years had been a conspirator against the Government of the country. War, said he is the motto under which the gentleman (Mr. Eldridge) and his associates have rallied during eight years. It is the motto which they now emblazon on their banner for the contest. Our motto is the restoration of the Union and peace, and so soon as those other three States can be restored through the instrumentality of peace and under the lead of loyal men they will be restored. We work under the ensign of peace for the restoration of three more States to the Union. The gentleman and his associates raise the banner of war for the expulsion of eight States which have been already restored. That is the issue on which we go to the country.

Mr. Eldridge denied that the Democratic party took any such position, and declared that the Republican party was responsible for the war The Southern people were crushed and broken down and trodden into the earth by, he had almost said, the atrocious acts of this Congress. The only reason why those States were held in the grasp of power was the fear that, if left free to act they would act with the Democratic party The gentleman from Massachusetts dare not, before God, deny that that was the sole purpose for which the [illegible] was inaugurated

Mr. Boutwell replied to the charge that the Democratic party was responsible for the rebellion, and referred to the [illegible] of Franklin P [illegible] and the [illegible] of Democratic leaders about the period of secession. The rebels of the South had been deceived at that time by the Democrats of the North, and they would be deceived again in the promise that with the election of a Democratic President a white man's Government would be established in the South. He warned them no longer to trust in the Democracy of the North, because, said he, let whatever may happen, this House and the Senate will be in power for the next two years. We have already [illegible], by the [illegible] article of [illegible] amendment, 1,200 or 1,500 [illegible] in the South who had participated in the rebellion. Our purpose is, as far and as fast as they bring forth fruits meet for repentance, to liberate them all. But if by accident, by a fatality which comes outside the range of providential influences, the Democracy shall succeed in the election of a President, what can they do for the South? Nothing, nothing. We shall be obliged to stand on the defensive and hold all those men where they are for four years, and you will be powerless to redeem the promise that you make. It is the interest of the South to stand fast by the Republican party, which has both the power and the disposition to be just and generous to every man in the South as fast as we can see that we can do so without danger to Republican institutions. He sent to the Clerk's desk and had read the letter of F. P. Blair to Col. Broadhead Commenting on that letter, Mr. Boutwell said its writer proposed that the President of the United States should take the army, drive out of the House and Senate members entitled to their seats there, disperse the Legislatures of the Southern States, set up new Legislatures and send new sets of Senators and Representatives to Congress That was the distinct declaration of Frank P Blair.

Mr. Munger (Dem, Ohio)—I would like to ask the gentleman from Massachusetts where he was when F. P Blair was fighting the battles of the country to keep those States in?

Mr. Boutwell—I was in the service of my country. But one thing I never did, I never professed to serve under a commission as General in the army and take pay for that service and serve in the House as a member of Congress, exercising civil functions and military authority at the same time, in violation of the Constitution and of the entire theory of the Government.

The discussion was continued in the spirit and temper of the portion of it here reported, and was participated in by Messrs Brooks, Dawes, Beck, Stevens, of Pennsylvania, Marshall and Schenck

Mr. Brooks (Dem. N. Y) said that if the gentleman from Massachusetts expected the Democrats to sit down in quiet and contentment under the Reconstruction Acts he was indulging in the vanity of all dreamers. The Democracy would exert its power here and elsewhere for the repeal of those Acts and for their overthrow in every possible constitutional manner They would go before the people with pride and pleasure on the issue whether the States of the South were to be governed by negroes almost exclusively or whether they were to be governed as the States of Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania were governed whether they were to be governed by white men or by negroes That was the issue and on that they would proudly appeal from Congress to the people

Mr. Stevens (Rep of Penn) reminded Mr. Brooks of the similar joint resolution passed by Congress without a dissenting voice, before the last Presidential election

Mr. Brooks suggested that there was a great difference between the state of the country at that time and at this

Mr. Stevens—Not a bit, not a bit

Mr. Brooks—Are we in rebellion now

Mr Stevens—You are in rebellion [loud and continued laughter]—and Frank Blair declares so He declares that the only way for the Democratic party is to elect a President who shall make use of the army to undo all that we have done in reconstructing the South—turn half of the voters out of their places, re-establish the old institution of slavery and re-establish the white man's Government [illegible]

The Democratic party is always in rebellion against tyranny and tyrants [Derisive laughter on the Republican side]

Mr Stevens (ironically) So it is, and when them anything but a white man's Democratic Government is [illegible] they are always in rebellion against everything but a Democratic majority and a Democratic slave rule

Mr. Brooks—Under what Article of the Constitution do you derive the authority to pass this law

Mr Stevens—I derive it from the authority of Congress to open and count and declare the Electoral vote Of course Congress is to provide the means by which that is to be done.

Mr Beck (Dem of Ky) declared that the object of including in the joint resolution Florida Arkansas and North Carolina, which were now represented in Congress, was to give the majority the power to throw out the Electoral vote of those States if they should be Democratic

Mr Marshall (Dem), of Illinois, declared that any charge of the Democratic party having taken part in secession or rebellion was unsustained by facts, and which every intelligent person knew to be so, and he mentioned a remark made by Mr Lincoln that gentlemen of his own party were very good at resolutions and long prayers, but that, had it not been for the stubborn valor of the Democracy of the North the Union would have gone down under rebellion

Mr. Boutwell read some extracts from the N Y World, giving a sketching description of the delegates to the Convention and of their record of services to the nation, picking out the paragraph relating to the services in the Confederate army of John A Winston, of Alabama, Jas H Clanton and Wade Hampton

Mr Washburne (Rep), of Illinois, thought the picture incomplete without the description of N B Forrest, of Tennessee, and he had that read also

Mr Brooks suggested to have read the record of Governor Holden, of North Carolina

Mr Mullins (Rep), of Tenn, wound up the description of Forrest by remarking that he was the hero of the bloody massacre of loyal men at Fort Pillow

Mr Marshall replied that he appealed to the honest people of the country, and wished them to notice how Democrats were attacked in the House day after day without an opportunity of meeting the attack, but they would be heard at the forum of the people, and would there fasten upon the Republican party its atrocious record and leave it to the verdict of an indignant people

Mr. Schenck (Rep.), of Ohio, accepted the appeal to the people and the polls and declared that the Republicans would be there to meet and repel all charges and make light of all threats He commented with a great deal of severity on the Blair letter

Finally the discussion was closed by the previous question, the Republicans having voted by eighty three votes to second the previous question

Mr Eldridge said he wanted the other side counted in order to know how many Democrats were out of their places.

To which Mr. Stevens remarked: Every one that is here is out of his place. [Laughter]

The amendments were agreed to—110 to 23—and the joint resolution was passed 112 to 21.

THESE WHEELS, UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States or the world have been fully tested on this coast many being in use at this date driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills Quartz Mills Woolen Factories &c, &c

CAUTION.
To all whom it may concern I hereby give notice that the so-called Shipley's Pacific Turbine Water Wheel is a direct infringement and copy of the James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited Any person or persons making using constructing or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice that I shall prosecute all infringements to the utmost extent of the law
That all may know I mean what I say and am not playing bluff, I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States

WASHINGTON D C April 17 1868
MR A MYERS—In accordance with your request we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels and are clearly of the opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents In both of Shipley's Wheels he uses the upper and lower tiers of buckets precisely as Leffel does and in this he clearly infringes The fact that Shipley has applied another series of buckets in addition to those used by Leffel does not relieve him from the consequences of infringement at all He has no right to use the two tiers of buckets whether alone or with a third or any other number of tiers added It is a clear infringement Respectfully yours
DODGE & MUNN
I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement upon Patents whether it is the maker user buyer or seller. Every infringement of what our claims are used in whole or in part, will be prosecuted

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of [illegible] Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc [illegible] years standing and Ulcerated [illegible] successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.
How many thousands of persons [illegible] male and female, are there who are suffering from a miserable existence from the effects of self-indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life It is horrid to think that thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Dr Gibbon a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who [illegible] publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.
Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice or degrading sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms [illegible] local measures viz. Sallowness of the face, dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like a rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,
Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief
DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.
Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.
Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure
Address DR J F GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Post Office Box 252.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

SWAIN'S PATENT
TURBINE WATER WHEELS!
A. M. SWAIN, AGENT,
North Chelmsford, Mass.
For further information, address—
J. D. SWAIN, Agent,
Butteville, Oregon.

THESE WHEELS ARE MADE OF ALL SIZES, are adapted to all heads, high and low and are warranted superior to anything ever yet invented for the purpose It received a medal at the great Mechanics Fair at Lowell, Mass as eminently adapted to the purpose which it serves
The following testimonials will be read with interest by all who have occasion to use water:

LOS GATOS, SANTA CLARA CO, CALIFORNIA, December 10, 1867
A M Swain—Dear Sir,—The following tests have been made by us at the dates given. Our overshot wheels were iron rim, iron braced, iron shafts and as good wheels as we have ever seen Buckets 7ft. long, rims 12 inches deep and 20ft in diameter.
They would not furnish sufficient [illegible] to run two runs of machinery on one wheel [illegible] were supplied with water, hence the tests; 1 run on each overshot wheel All our tests were made by measuring the depth of water in a flume and the distance a floating stick would travel in it per minute. All the flour made is our XXX brand [illegible] bushels of wheat per bbl.
Feby 1st, 1867 —Water 15 inches deep in flume 4ft wide, running 160ft. per minute, drives one run on overshot wheel and all mill machinery to make 2 bbls flour per hour—734 cubic feet per minute
Feby 7th—Water 17 inches deep, 4ft wide, running 180ft per minute drives 2 runs of stone on both overshots, all mill machinery to make 4 bbls. flour per hour—1020 cubic feet used
Nov 15th 1866 —Water 9 inches deep, 4ft wide, running 158ft. per minute drives 1 run on Stevenson Jonval Turbines under 62ft head to make 3 bbls. flour per hour and all mill machinery using 408 cubic feet per minute
Aug, 12th, 1867 —Water 8 inches deep, 4ft wide, running 152ft per minute drives 1 run on Swain wheel under 55ft head and all mill machinery to make 4½ bbls of flour per hour, using 342 cubic feet of water per minute.
Aug 20th —Water 6½ inches deep, 4ft wide, running 172ft per minute, drives 1 run on Swain wheel under 55ft head and all mill machinery, except wheat cleaners to make 3 bbls flour per hour, making 281 cubic feet of water used per minute
Nov 2d —Water 9½ inches deep 4ft wide running 136ft per minute, drives 2 runs on Swain wheel under 56ft. head, and all mill machinery except wheat cleaners making 4 bbls flour per hour on one stone, and grinding one ton of barley per hour on the other run, grinding 11,741 lbs of barley in a straight run of less than six hours—using 431 cubic feet of water per minute
Sept 27th —Water 7 inches deep, 4ft wide running 132ft per minute drives 1 run on Leffel wheel under 62ft head, to make 3 bbls flour per hour and all mill machinery except wheat cleaners, making 308 cubic feet of water used
Your wheel (12 inch) will run 775 to 800 turns per minute, and will send a stone to 200 easily, and even faster if we dare Truly yours
ROGERS & HARRISON,

LEXINGTON FLOUR MILLS
SANTA CLARA Co, Co CALIFORNIA, April 30th, 1868
A M Swain—Dear Sir We have now been using your 12 inch wheel with bucket 1½ inch deep for over one year in our flour mill under 55 feet head We have made very careful tests with overshot wheels and find your wheel fully equals the best overshot ever with partial gate and excels it with full gate. It will run our mill machinery and run up to its full motion with the gate one fifth [illegible] We have tested [illegible] beside the Ixler Stevenson and Leffel turbines drawing water from the same pipe and find it superior to them in simplicity of gate fixtures steady power and greater economy of water After twenty years experience in water wheels and the expenditure of thousands of dollars on different wheels we would not take any other wheel as a gift if we could get the Swain perfect built turbine by paying for it at the highest rates We consider money paid for perfect work on a water wheel that will last for years, for a manufacturer the best possible investment
We have great trouble with the Leffel wheel gate in leaking and breaking and have broke the gate several times in the six months we have run it while your gate has never failed to close tight and has never bothered us for a moment Truly yours
